1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claims 1, 2, 4-6, 8, 9, and 11-16 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being clearly anticipated by BONN (4,888,655).

Note figures 3 and 4. BONN shows a disk drive with a base and cover (7), a recirculation filter (110) held in place by two holders (112) located on the cover. The filter has thinner insertion portions that firmly fit in the grooves in the holders, and thus the length and width of the insertion portions are substantially the same as the mounting grooves in the holders (see column 4 lines 8-10). The length of the filtering portion is substantially equal to the spacing between the holders.

3. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

4. Claims 3, 7, 10, and 17-22 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over BONN (4,888,655).

BONN discloses a disk drive with a recirculation filter structure substantially as claimed.

BONN differs in not specifying a different material for the insertion portions of the filter.

It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to utilize a different material as recited in these claims for the insertion portions of the filter in BONN. The motivation is as follows: these are art recognized equivalents that operate in the same manner and produce the same results without any unexpected results. The exact material of the insertion portions has no operational significance beyond fully filling the grooves. BONN teaches that the insertion portions do this – i.e. fully fill the mounting grooves.

5. Applicant's arguments filed 2/28/05 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

Applicant argues that BONN does not show details of the filter. The Examiner does not agree. The drawings clearly show the structure of the filter.

Applicant also argues that the BONN structure does not form a seal as recited in claim 1. The Examiner does not agree. The disclosure in BONN clearly indicates that the insertion portions are configured to tightly fit into the mounting grooves. This broadly satisfies the claim recitation.

Concerning claim 2, Applicant again argues that BONN does not specify the details of the filter structure. The Examiner does not agree. The drawings clearly show an extension of the filter material.

6. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
